Specialty Judge's Comments

by Mrs. Pat Ulloa

I first encountered a Borzoi over 30 years ago and two things have made them dear to my heart – their beauty and sweet temperament. They will always be the only dog for me.

To have the opportunity to judge the national was a dream come true. I was looking forward to seeing magnificent dogs and I was not disappointed.

The three days I spent in the ring were a joy. Overall I found the dogs to be of good quality. With few exceptions, they were balanced and pleasing to the eye. Some had insufficient return of upper arm but that has been a problem as long as I can remember. However it is also a problem in most other breeds and probably a universal challenge to all breeders. I found very few missing teeth or bad bites and no roman heads or extreme wheelbacks – two of my personal pet peeves.

The Best of Breed class took my breath away. Almost from the beginning I had to resort to nit-picking to make cuts. Little things such as loose coming and going or not quite the reach and drive I wanted to see. Perhaps a bit of missing pigment or a less than elegant headpiece. In the end my winners and award of merit dogs were all worthy champions who could easily contend for best of breed in another venue. To the breeders of these lovely dogs I say you should be very proud. If the dogs that came to the national are representative of the dogs to be found throughout the country, then I have to believe the breed is in great shape.

Before I comment on individual dogs, I would like to congratulate Barbara O'Neill and her show committee for putting on a great specialty. The grounds were immaculate and the rings showcased the dogs to their best advantage. How nice it was to see all that grass with the river as a backdrop. I especially want to thank Karen Mays and her helpers for keeping my ring organized. How hard the days would have been without their help. Now, as to the individual classes and dogs, my observations follow.

6-9 PUPPY DOGS

- 1. Horse and Hound Ballymaloo: Good substance, balance and clean movement all around.
- 2. Horse 'N Hound Fardorocha of Kyrov: Also very well balanced and substantial and I liked him very much but he gave just a tiny bit on the movement and that made the difference.
- 3. Gryffyn's Aeyrie Rock N Roll Rebel: Very sound mover all the way around but lost to the second place dog due to substance and balance.
- 4. Gryffyn's Aeyrie Revelation: Nice mover but had a little less substance than I care for.

9-12 PUPPY DOGS

- 1. Borscana Contraband: Beautifully balanced. Moved very well.
- 2. Echovesna's Hot Rod: Just a tiny bit looser coming and going but his conformation and outline was very nice.
- 3. Greyhaven Summer Wine: Somewhat lacking in substance.
- 4. DiPauls Wyatt Earp: A little weird coming and going.

12-18 DOGS

1. Raynbo's Run For The Roses: A beautifully balanced dog, moved soundly and was very well put together with a lovely head.
2. Twin Elms Svershin Navariy: A little bit straighter in the front than the first dog but still had nice substance and body and moved well.
3. Paradise Spirit Torch Song Enchanté: I would have like more substance in the body.
4. Katz Sylvan Gladstone Gander: Somewhat awkward and put together a little roughly.

NOVICE DOG

1. Soyara's Ilya Murometz: Very well put together. Substantial and well moving dog.
2. Del Sol Talladega Nights: I wasn't too pleased with his substance but he moved well.
3. Wind 'N Satin View To A Thrill: Lost to the second place dog due to his topline.
4. Golightly By Daylight: Movement was very awkward.

BRED BY EXHIBITOR DOGS

1. Avalyn's Magnum Force: Beautiful conformation. Moved smoothly with good reach and drive.
2. Katushka-Meyta Yves St. Lauren: Very nice conformation. Lost a little bit because of substance in the body but other than that he had great angulation and movement.
3. Jubilee Tadbbit O'Brindle Mist: Good mover. I would have liked to have seen a tiny bit more substance for a dog.

Best in Triathlon

4. Avalyn's Regal Presence: Nice but I would have like a little more reach and drive.

WINNERS DOG – Auroral's Singin' In The Rain was a gorgeous dog with beautiful type and conformation and wonderful movement. A total package. I couldn't have asked for more.

RESERVE WINNERS DOG – Annwn

Ascalon pushed the Winners Dog very closely. He also had beautiful type and a lovely head-piece. Moved like a dream.

6-9 PUPPY BITCHES

1. Katushka's Million Dollar Baby: Beautifully balanced. Moved smoothly coming, going and around.
2. Rising Star Amber: Also had really pretty conformation. A little bit loose coming but other than that was a very nice dog.

1. Majenkir Hunter's Dawn: Beautiful angulation both front and rear, nice topline and moved very smoothly going around.
2. Krasivi Volshebnivitsa: A little less pleasing to the eye in general outline but otherwise moved very nicely. Could have used a little more angulation front and rear.

3. Windrift Elizabeth at Tahoe: Nice angles and balance but somewhat loose coming and going.

12-18 BITCHES

4. Jedawn's Princess Belle: Still a baby but a very beautiful puppy. Didn't put a paw down wrong.

AMERICAN BRED BITCHES

1. Ravenna Special Relativity: Well proportioned and put together. Moved very smoothly.
2. Lythe Querida: Nicely balanced with good angulation. Nice substance.
3. FC Wind 'N Satin Sugar Hill of Legend: Somewhat thin with a too flat topline but a good mover with nice angulation.
4. Raynbo's Moonstone Rose at Maskova: Good balance but a little straight in the front causing her to movement to be somewhat restricted. Had some pigment missing in the lips.

OPEN BITCHES

1. Abidjan Q Lexus: Beautiful, substantial bitch with excellent movement in all directions and a very pretty headpiece. I couldn't have asked for more.
2. L'Bjorzi's Jaelle of Sunburst: Very elegant with nice balance. Pushed the first place bitch strongly but gave a tiny bit in side movement which looked a little bit sickle-hocked.

3. Avalyn Fine Krystal At Nakai: A little bit long for my liking but other than that, moved very well.
4. Zimistraiija Savidai Soaring Velocity: Pretty and typey with a nice headpiece. Well balanced.

WINNERS BITCH – Gladkii Veter Illusion O Matter was very well put together with lots of substance which I like to see in a brood bitch. A very nice headpiece and good return of upper arm. A very pleasant topline and deep chest. All of this without losing elegance and femininity or the ability to move smoothly.

RESERVE WINNERS BITCH – Sylvan Topanga Canyon was very good coming and going with smooth flowing reach and drive. A very elegant bitch with a nice headpiece and outline.

7-10 VETERAN DOG - Ch. Avalyn Nakai The Magic Flute: Nice outline and a smooth sidegait. Still very sound and a deserving champion.

10+ VETERAN DOG – Ch. Rising Star Conquistador: This poor old guy could hardly move but you could still see that he was once a good dog. Veterans always make me cry and this was no exception. I was glad that he was able to come and once again bask in the appreciation of the ringside.

7-10 VETERAN BITCH – Ch. Raynbo's Winter Rose: Still beautifully proportioned and balanced. Lovely headpiece. Moved like a dream.

10+ VETERAN BITCH – Cordova Mishkova Nonsuch Feather: Doesn't look a day over five. Still all together with a nice outline and smooth movement.

STUD DOG CLASS

1. Ch. Majenkir Regal By Design. Compared to the other groups in the class, this dog's get had great consistency of type, soundness and quality throughout. This is such an important factor in a stud dog. What you see is what you get.
2. Ch. Sunburst Huntsman at Mechta
3. Ch. Jubilee Breath of Life, CD
4. DC Del Sol Lord Of The Dance, SC

BROOD BITCH CLASS

1. Ch. Raynbo's Winter Rose. As in the Stud Dog Class, this group of puppies exhibited consistency of type and conformation from start to finish. A very nice collection of puppies for the proud momma-dog.
2. Ch. Tzirina Camille Svershin, JC
3. Ch. Katz Night N Paisley
4. Ch. Del Sol Belle Starr, SC

BRACE CLASS

I evaluated this class on how well they were matched in color, size and how they moved together as a unit. The first group had it all together in all three areas. The second group was a little bit rusty insofar as their coordination with each other went. The third group was baby puppies. They were darling and well matched but all over the place when they moved.

1. Valinor's Circuit De Monaco At Riverrun, SC and DC Aragorn's Barron GL Jedediah, SC
2. Ch. Bon-Ton's Zoltar of Shelmar and Ch. Bon-Ton's Zebulon of Shelmar

BEST OF BREED COMPETITION

BEST OF BREED – Ch. Sunburst Huntsman at Mechta. This dog exemplifies everything I could possibly want in a Borzoi. Powerful enough to hunt large prey yet beautiful and elegant in every respect. He has a correct topline and good angulation front and rear. His movement was extraordinary – beautiful reach and drive and sound as a dollar coming and going. A total package of Borzoi excellence.

BEST OF WINNERS - Auroral's Singin' In The Rain. This lovely dog came from the Bred by Exhibitor Class and his breeders can be proud indeed. A sound, balanced dog with wonderful type.

BEST OF OPPOSITE SEX – Ch. Majenkir Silver Filligree. A beautifully balanced bitch with great movement. Feminine yet strong. Everything you could want in a bitch to carry on the essence of Borzoi in generations to come.

AWARDS OF MERIT – listed in catalog order. I wish I had more AOM ribbons as there were many deserving champions in my ring this day. Any one of the Borzoi listed below could easily contend for BOB at another time. A truly magnificent display of beautiful Borzoi.

Sweepstakes

BCOA National Sweepstakes Critique

By Mrs. Katie Averill

It was an honor and a pleasure to judge the Puppy and Veteran Sweepstakes. I want to thank all the exhibitors for bringing me such quality Borzoi. Not only did the puppies show great promise but the overall quality of the entry was the best I've seen in a long while.

I saw some lovely elegant heads, dark eyes and pigment and many had nice length of neck. Almost all of the youngsters demonstrated correct tail carriage and many were very well balanced. I think that the breeders have paid a lot of attention to bites and dentition as this was not a problem in the ring. I like a full mouth but movement is just as important, if not more so.

A balanced Borzoi is apt to be a nice moving one. I like to see a very clean down and back. The front should not cross or have excess pastern flopping but must reach out and use the upper arm properly to give an effortless reach. Fronts are extremely difficult to correct, so I really appreciate a good one. The rears should also move smoothly with no crossing, wobbling, or stiffness. A balanced front and rear will work together to create a smooth, effortless, ground covering stride. A Borzoi can easily exhibit this type of movement without excessive speed. Most of the youngsters showed as if they had been showing all their lives. Once in a while a puppy was a little too happy (as puppies will be) and this made it hard to see true movement.

With puppies and their awkward growth stages, I had to make my choices based on their balance and movement on the day I saw them. I am always amazed at how different they can look only one day later and for those exhibitors who apologized for "dog show coat loss", I didn't pay any attention to the loss. I've been in that spot too. Once again thanks to the exhibitors for showing me such quality.

When I saw my final line up for Best In Sweepstakes, I was faced with a big challenge—how could I pick just two from such quality. After moving them again and again, I made my choices.

Best In Sweepstakes was awarded to Maskova's Affarre De Cour. This dynamite young lady came from the 6-9 class. She caught my eye as soon as she walked into the ring. She had excellent presence and that "look at me" attitude. She never put a foot wrong and exhibited that important smooth effortless reach with good use of her upper arm. She was impossible to ignore.

Best Opposite Sex went to Greyhaven Summer Wine from the 9-12 class. This young man had a nice head, neck and well balanced body. He was one of those Borzoi whose movement is outstanding. He had a clean consistent down and back but his sidegait had that something special that kept drawing my attention. That smooth effortless sidegait is a joy to watch.

6-9 Puppy Dogs

1. Maskova's Masquerade At Dukemans: This lovely white and gold boy had a nice clean down and back with good use of his upper arm. He was nicely balanced with a lovely length of neck
2. Horse and Hound Ballymaloo: A lovely white and sable spotted boy who had a pretty head and was a well balanced nice moving youngster.
3. Horse 'N Hound Fardorochoa of Kyrov: This tri spotted male had a gorgeous head. He was having a bit of fun at the expense of his handler but he was well angulated both front and rear.
4. Katushka's Amadeus: A very nice youngster who had a nice fore chest, head and neck. He had a clean down and back and smooth sidegait.

9-12 Puppy Dogs

1. Greyhaven Summer Wine: An Irish-marked light gold, this young man had a nice head and good length of neck. What struck me was his exceptional movement. He was clean on the down and back and had a wonderful effortless sidegait
2. Echovesna's Hot Rod: a white and red spotted boy, he was very balanced. His front angulation matched his rear and helped him move very smoothly. He had a lovely head and looked like he had more to give.
3. Borscana Contraband: This white and gold spotted youngster had a nicely balanced body with good angulation and nice low hocks. A promising puppy.
4. Zoiboyz Summer Jazz: A very nice boy who had good rear angulation. He had a nice head and moved well with a nice down and back.

12-15 Puppy Dogs

1. Paradise Spirit Torch Song Enchanté: This Irish-marked red had a lovely long head and neck. A well balanced boy, he had a great clean down and back with nice reach.
2. Avalon Zip Line Express: A lovely self black boy who also had good length of head and neck. He had more rear angulation than front on this day but had a really nice clean down and back.

3. Raynbo's Run For The Roses: This white youngster was very nicely balanced. His down and back were clean and he had a lovely smooth sidegait. He gave the impression that he still had more to give.
4. Ardagan's Got My Mind Set On You: A very handsome, balanced male who moved well and showed a lot of promise.

15-18 Puppy Dogs

1. Katz Golden Haze: A very striking Irish-marked gold who had a wonderful head and nice length of neck. He was balanced so nicely that he moved like a dream. A clean down and back and good sidegait made him very impressive.
2. Twin Elms Svershin Navariy: This youngster was white with gold spots. He was nicely balanced with good movement and a delightful coat to add to the picture.
3. Katz Sylvan Gladstone Gander—A really striking light red male who had beautiful head and good balance. He didn't use himself as much as the first two but his smoothness was obvious.
4. Gladkii Veter Secret Asset, JC: This handsome fellow was well balanced and very nice moving. He presented a pretty picture and never put a foot out of place.

6-9 Puppy Bitches

1. Maskova's Affarre De Cour: This Irish-marked pale gold bitch caught my eye right away. She was correctly balanced and had both front and rear angulation. When she moved she was dead true and her sidegait was to die for. She behaved as if she were a champion ready to be chosen.
2. Gryffyn's Aerie Fire In The Sky: A beautiful Irish-marked red girl with a really nicely balanced body. Her body was similar to the first place bitch and she too was clean moved with good reaching sidegait.
3. Zooropa Laureate Adrienne Picture This: A striking tri spotted girl, she had a lovely head, nice balance and moved very smoothly.
4. Katushka's Million Dollar Baby: Another very pretty girl with a very nice head. She had a lot of leg and used it to her advantage.

9-12 Puppy Bitches

1. Krasivi Volshebnivitsa: This white girl with pale gold spots was a real eye catcher. She was a wonderful mover who just floated around the ring. She had a clean down and back and was wonderfully balanced.

Veteran Sweeps

Veteran Sweepstakes

Judging the Veteran Sweepstakes was a bitter-sweet experience. It is sweet because of all the wonderful veterans who strut their stuff. It is bitter because I could only pick one winner from each class. I must admit that at times it was hard to see through my tears at such quality senior citizens. These classes showed me that our Borzoi breeders are as concerned with "staying power" as they are with their upcoming stars. These veterans showed that they retained or exceeded the quality that they exhibited in their younger years. In fact, many of them really seemed to have gotten even better with the years. Their movement was exceptional—clean down and backs and effortless reaching sidegait. They all showed their pride and joy to be back in the ring. My hat is off to all of their breeders and owners.

My Best Veteran, DC Sylvan Seabury Virago, SC, was one of those quality Borzoi who has only improved with age. He still had his really nice head, neck and body. His sidegait and presence were even more impressive with age. He kept his mind on his performance and gave everything he was capable of and that his handler asked of him. While it was hard to pick one from the quality in the final Veterans' line up, he demanded the win and received it.

My Best of Opposite Sex Veteran, CH Del Sol Belle Starr, SC, was in marvelous shape for her age. She moved like a much younger girl and not the senior citizen she was. While she was given a run for money by the other "Golden Girls," her beauty, soundness and lovely movement were impressive. There was a special something about her that shouted "pick me," and I did.

7-8 Veteran Dogs

1. DC Sylvan Seabury Virago, SC: This Irish-marked red has really; gotten better with age. He was elegant with a nice head and neck and dynamite movement. He floated effortlessly around the ring and couldn't be denied.

8-9 Veteran Dogs

1. CH Gryffyn's Aerie Caliburn, JC: This Irish-marked tri male felt so good when I had my hands on him. He had good fore chest, the smoothest shoulder set and a chest down to his elbows. He too moved very well.

9-10 Veteran Dogs

1. CH Rainmaker Forever More, CD, SC: This white and gold spotted Senior was a lovely sight. He was balanced and moved exceptionally for his age. He was in great condition.

10+ Veteran Dogs

1. CH Rising Star Conquistador: This tri spotted Senior had a lovely head and coat. He gave his best and really seemed to enjoy being the center of attention.

7-8 Veteran Bitches

1. CH Raynbo's Winter Rose: This was a gorgeous white bitch who moved cleanly and smoothly. She is another who is truly getting even better with age. She moved with elegance and class.

8-9 Veteran bitches

1. CH Carowynd's Oksana of Tamarzi : This white and gold spotted Senior was very balanced and clean on the down and back. Her sidegait was outstanding.

9-10 Veteran Bitches

1. CH Del Sol Belle Starr, SC: A lovely Irish-marked tri bitch, who caught my eye right away. She had a lovely head and great balance. She never put a foot wrong and still moved effortlessly around the ring.

10+ Veteran Bitches

1. CH Cordova Mishkova Nonsuch Feather: This mostly white Senior was lovely. Her pretty head and fantastic coat were icing on a lovely body. She moved cleanly and used herself like a much younger girl. §

BCOA National Futurity Critique

By Ms. Shirley McFadden

Once again I want to express my gratitude to the breeders for this opportunity and privilege. In my individual observations below, I am only focusing on the qualities I saw in each Borzoi rather than the deficits. Overall I thought the entry was very nice.

Perfect front sets with good layback of shoulder, upper arm return, along with clean and well reaching out front movement seemed to be the Holy Grail and all of those qualities were found in just a few. However, sidegait was the majority of the time adequate to superb, as was rear movement. There were many nice heads of many acceptable types per our standard. Toplines were overall very nice with just a few outlines of the extremes. There were only one or two bites that were not correct and they were just slightly under and a few with popped lower middle two incisors. There were a handful of entrants with missing teeth and I feel this is something we really need to watch. The quality was deep and some of the classes were especially nice and competitive. It was nice to see such a large quality entry from all over the country and it was even nicer to have the opportunity to really go over them. I applaud my fellow breeders for what they are striving for and accomplishing in their breeding programs.

6-9 Month Puppy Dogs

1. This dark brindle and white dog was very balanced with nice angulation. He was a nice mover from all directions, had a beautiful head with dark eye and soft expression, had excellent substance for his age and was very well put together. He also had a lovely profile, was pretty moving with good tail carriage and was in fabulous condition.

2. This blue sable (?) and white dog was also a nice mover, had a nice profile, topline, nice head, was well angulated and had good substance. Pretty sidegait and tail carriage.
3. This was a big boy who had nice clean movement and nice profile. Pretty moving also with good tail carriage. I believe he was a littermate to the 2nd place dog.
4. This little brindle boy had a really nice front, was nicely angulated in front and rear, also had a correct topline. He has a beautiful head as well.

9-12 Month Puppy Dogs

1. This sable boy had a correct head, nice dark eye and pretty expression. A balanced dog with clean movement on the down and back. Also had a correct topline.
2. This white boy had nice sidegait and good angulation in front and rear. He had nice sidegait and tail carriage
3. Nice moving red and white boy with lovely sidegait, balanced, nice head and neck set.
4. This white and cream dog was moderately angled and balanced, was clean moving down and back.

12-15 Month Puppy Dogs

1. This gorgeous white dog had excellent sidegait, substance, a beautiful head and expression. He was well angulated in front and rear. He was in glorious full luscious coat. His overall beauty and movement was truly breathtaking and he was one of my
