

Ch. Zoloshka of Wolfschmidtzoff

Bitch. Self-gold
 Whelped February 23, 1970
 Bred by Mary Horton and William Normand

Owner: Kay Timmerman & Mary Horton
 Prattville, AL

Zoloshka, the Russian Cinderella, like the fairy tale princess, unexpectedly found favor in Judge Kendrick's eyes at her first show as he whisked her from novice class to BOS over Specials at the 1971 Atlanta spring show for a five-point major. Shown a total of eight times, she finished with four majors and five BOS under eight different judges.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| | Ristovia's Prince Igorsky |
| Ch. Ristovia's Count Karajan | Sunbarr's Sonya of Kirklea |
| Jowag's Count de la Tuque | Ch. Prince Rurick of Baronoff |
| Laylya of Wolfschmidtzoff | Ch. Whitchie of TamBoer |
| Ch. Prince Rurick of Baronoff | Ch. Prometheus of Rancho Gabriel |
| Ch. Elena of Wolfschmidtzoff | Ch. Anna Pavlova of Baronoff |
| Ch. Whitchie of TamBoer | Ch. Allah of TamBoer |
| | Ch. Natasha of TamBoer |