It was large and well-appointed, located right off an interstate and very accessible to the airport and to downtown, with 5 or 6 restaurants of various ethnic persuasions within walking distance, and much more within a short drive. The staff was friendly and competent; the ballroom had plenty of room for a national. The only time I had to split classes was in Best of Breed competition. From my somewhat insulated and isolated position, there was no way I could have known there was a fully mature male in beautiful coat, out-of-the-ordinary presence, very pretty in silhouette standing movement in all directions, as good to the hand as he was to the eye. Not without a few minor flaws but very little and very fine compared to his great virtues. He was Winners Dog, Reserve and was Majenkir My Way.

Among the bitch classes, the standouts to me were the Open Bitch, who won a very tough class. She was Virshina Sweet Pea, bred by Chris Bradley, and co-owned by Sherry Neigum. Lovely and correct sidegait, beautiful side profile, very good in expression. Outstanding was the Bred-by-bitch, Gavril Sky Run Vidalia Sweet, bred by Michael and Shirley Rehberg and Barbara Skinner, owned by the Rehbergs, and Rachel Rehberg Gongre. This bitch had a very pretty head and neck, pretty profile stacked, nice sidegait and very clean coming and going—she was Winners bitch. The 12-18 month bitch, Topaz, bred by Greyhaven Devil or Angel, bred and owned by Marilyn Polfus, with a face to die for, pretty mover, lovely in profile. And the 6-9 month winner, Majenkir Solaria, bred and owned by Karen Stash-Cartabona, had the most beautiful balanced, free, very clean movement, which won her Reserve Winners.

The Veterans Winners were all dogs I had admired in their prime, all holding up well under the pressures of age. Looking very handsome were Ch Switress Romantic Egotist, JC, bred by K. Cook, and Ch. Cook-Hunchak, owned by Chris Hunchak and Rhanda Glenn, and Ch. Sabvladi Build On A Dream, bred and owned by Helen Lee, each winning their respective 7-10 year classes. The standout veteran to me was from the over 10 years bitch class, Ch. RR Li’l Egypt of the Wild Hunt, bred by Ariel Duncan, and co-owned by her with Harriet Grube, looking as good as she had years before, and that is saying quite a lot.

The Stud Dog class was won by Ch. Majenkir Tsipur Glimmer, bred by Rev. G. Engleth and K. Stash-Cartabona, owned by Wm. and Karen Ackerman, who stamped his type and very clean, efficient movement on all his get. The Brook Topaz, bred by Chris Swilley and Chris Bradley and owned by Karen Stash-Cartabona; and the final cut in breed, and whose lovely quality could easily be seen in her body. Best of Bred was a pleasure to judge, with many of the country’s best Borzoi stepping into the ring for consideration. Trimming the class down to the number needed for the top awards and awards of merit was almost painful and some very good dogs went with no acknowledgement except their place in the cut. However, I was left with marvellous dogs to work with and when I name the Award of Merit animals, some were Ch Swiftess Romantic Egotist, JC, said quite a lot.

When we took the pictures, I found out he is a very fine bred, slab-sided, skinny with what seemed no effort at all. It is a great honor and was a great deal of fun for me constantly, and kept the ring organized and awards of merit was almost painful and no acknowledgement except their place in the cut. However, I was left with marvellous dogs to work with and when I name the Award of Merit animals, some were Ch Swiftess Romantic Egotist, JC, said quite a lot.

As for the dogs: I had a significant number of very refined, very fine-boned, slab-sided, skinny and when I name the Award of Merit animals, some were Ch Swiftess Romantic Egotist, JC, said quite a lot.

The setting was beautiful, the ring was perfect in size, my ring stewards were experienced and the Borzoi just lovely. I was thrilled to have the honor to evaluate the entry of 98 puppies and 23 veterans at this national specialty. My sincere thank you to the exhibitors for giving me the pleasure of judging these Borzoi, to the members of the BCOA for this opportunity and to the show committee and secretary for their hard work and attention to details which made the event a pleasure to judge.

My overall impression of the youngsters I judged was a positive one. The Borzoi exhibited were of good temperament, well trained, good body, respectable coat and except for a small number of the pre-adolescent bitches, in good weight. Eyes were dark, pigment well defined and dark, nearly all the exhibits had full dentition, and the toplines were for the most part proper and functional.

Overall structural concerns that recurred throughout this entry of youngsters were minimal, yet will prove challenging for breeders. These are focused on two very important areas: Front assemblies with steep shoulders and cat feet. Also of concern, yet readily curable, was the number of Borzoi presented that could benefit the pre-adolescent bitches, in good weight. Eyes were dark, pigment well defined and dark, nearly all the exhibits had full dentition, and the toplines were for the most part proper and functional.

Puppy Dogs, 6-9—Wind ‘N Satin Iceman Cometh was the winner of this class. A strong, well-muscled, sound male that covered ground efficiently. He was balanced and had a good neck and shoulder assembly. Lovely pigment, scissors bite, full dentition. A standout in his class.

Puppy Dogs, 9-12—Renaissance General Patton took the blue ribbon in this entry. He had a good topline, moved efficiently with lovely breed type. Nice eye, scissors bite, full dentition. He carried his tail a bit too high, yet for other qualities outweighed this distraction in this class.

Puppy Dogs, 12-15—Oaklara Shadow Dancer captured the win here. A balanced, sound, handsomely, boy, in good coat and condition. Coming and going he did not put a foot down wrong. As a traditionally ‘difficult’ age for young male Borzoi, this dog was put together well. He has a lovely head, with dark eye, scissors bite, nice topline and easy movement with excellent drive.

Puppy Dogs, 15-18—Majenkir My Way rose to the occasion and captured this class of outstanding competitors. A very mature, well-muscled male with a lovely neck set and strong loins, he covered ground with purpose and moved cleanly on the down and back. Nice eye, good pigmentation, even bite on a filled-in headpiece. This dog’s front assembly and maturity earned him this win in a very strong class.

Puppy Bitches, 6-9—Attaway’s Autumn Princess came out on top of this very large, quality entry of ‘tiny’ babies. With each go, she only got better and better. Good body, nicely sprung ribs, strong loin, and an effortless ground-covering stride. Each of my placements were excellent young bitches, sound, scissors bites, excellent reach and drive with very promising futures.

Puppy Bitches, 9-12—Renaissance Normandy Coast won a standout in her class. A lovely bitch, strong yet feminine, felt good under the hand and moved smoothly and with purpose from the side. Lovely dark eye and pigment, scissors bite, good loin.

Puppy Bitches, 12-15—Greyhaven Devil or Angel got the nod in this class. A nice bitch, in good condition and mature. She had a ground-covering stride, dark eye, black pigment with exceptional coat and furnishings, which kept her in the front of the line-up in this class.

Puppy Bitches, 15-18—Soyara’s Chantilly Lace captured my eye as she took her first turn around the ring, eventually winning this class. She had an effortless gait, both from the side and coming and going. A beautiful expression, scissors bite, dark pigmentation, complemented by a lovely neck and shoulder, good musculature; strong loin with just the right amount of rib spring and depth of chest.

Best in Sweeps was awarded to Soyara’s Chantilly Lace who was challenged by Renaissance Normandy Coast.

Best Opposite Sex in Sweeps was awarded to Oaklara Shadow Dancer in a hot contest with Majenkir My Way.

The Veterans were the highlight of this event for me. Such depth of quality and good health in ALL the entrants! It was so difficult to have to pick one. All the competitors carried their ages with exceptional vitality, beauty, strength and soundness. No tears for these grand and glorious seniors; I was smiling from ear to ear at their beauty and grace. Their condition and health is a tribute to not only their various bloodlines but also clear indication of the care, love and devotion of their owners. They are our breed’s ‘golden’ treasures. None of these dogs were strangers to me, as I had seen them compete since their first puppy classes. What a thrill to see them all looking so youthful and dignified.

Veteran Sweeps Dogs, 7-8—Ch. Rossak of Enfield was the sole entrant in this age group, in wonderful coat, good weight, a lovely expression and good mouth. He covered the ground effortlessly, has a remarkable neckset and shoulder, good topline and strong loin. A dog with an outstanding hindquarters and although he has a lot of rear angulation, it is carried on broad, well-built body, a touch on the heavy side but this did not interfere with his smooth movement and overall quality.

Veteran Sweeps Dogs, 8-9—Ch. Justyl’s Rico Suave was also a sole entrant in this age group. He is an energetic senior, disguising his age with his youthful appearance, in excellent condition, soundness, muscle, and lovely coat and grooming.

Veteran Sweeps Dogs, 9-10—Ch. Kyrov’s Crescendo won this strong class of seniors. Still a handsome and exciting dog, flawlessly sound and honest coming and going. Wonderful shoulders, a strong well-built body, a touch on the heavy side but this did not interfere with his smooth movement and overall quality.

Veteran Sweeps Bitches, 7-8—Ch. Svaladai Build On A Dream won this competitive class of recent retirees. At the risk of repeating myself, she too had a lovely ground-covering stride, nice structure, good topline and good condition.

Veteran Sweeps Bitches, 8-9—Asta’s Sweet Deceit received the blue ribbon here. A nice bitch, in lovely condition and holding her own in such nice competition.

Veteran Sweeps Bitches, 9-10—Ch. Elmden Cresset Is Ves Tia took the honors in this class. She was energetic, strong, flexible and moved with ease. A lovely bitch still showing her good structure and fluid, effortless movement.

Veteran Sweeps Bitches, 10 and over—Ch. RR Lil Egypt Of The Wild Hunt SC sailed around the ring to win this class. Her reach, extension and drive are enviable, and when her age is taken into consideration it is remarkable. Her topline had not fared as well as her movement and flexibility, a minimal detractor to her overall quality.

The Best In Veteran Sweeps competition had seven exceptional seniors standing in the ring. A time span of over 5 years separated the youngest veteran from the oldest. Before me was the most difficult challenge of my judging experience to date. The Best In Veteran Sweeps award came down to a decision between two males, Ch. Kyrov’s Crescendo and Ch. Rossak of Enfield. The award for Best Opposite was a difficult choice between Ch. RR Lil Egypt Of The Wild Hunt SC and Ch. Elmden Cresset Iz Ves Tia. In the end, Ch. Rossak of Enfield was awarded Best Veteran In Sweeps with Ch. Elmden Cresset Iz Ves Tia receiving Best Opposite Sex Veteran.

Thank you for the pleasure of judging the sweeps entry.$
