Unique Zoitiques

By Cindy Michalak

Welcome back from the BCOA National and congratulations to all the winners and dogs that made the cut. At least we were pulled for a second consideration; however, my Zydeco decided it was playtime in the ring and wasn't moving as well as he normally does. Enough excuses...let's get on with Unique Zoitiques for this quarter. I felt that I don't show enough jewelry and decided to whet your appetites with things to look for that are sometimes available out in collectibles-land. I have many privately made things to share with you this time, with only one I believe to be a vintage piece.

Made of glue or some kind of rubber material, this very flexible pin measures 2 1/2 x 3". I have had this quite a few years and I believe someone in one of my online discussion groups made several of these at the time. A nice rendition of a Borzoi, valued at about $10.

This nicely detailed wood-carved Borzoi pin has a mystery about it. On the back the long pin-back was somehow inserted into the wood. The only thing you can see are the clasps sticking thru the wood along with the pin itself. There is no trace of insertion point or added material. How in the world they added the pin is beyond me. I believe this is vintage, judging from the glass eyes that were inserted into the wood. It measures 3 x 1 x 1" and valued around $40.

Here is a lovely Borzoi head made from some sort of ceramic or similar material that was painted bronze color. It measures 2 1/2 x 2" and signed on the back "Jenko." I've already asked Marylee Jenko if she had made this and her answer was no. I showed it to her and she thought it was as lovely as I do. I believe the buildings to be the Onion Domes of St. Basil Cathedral, but it is strictly a guess on my part since I do not know the history of the pin. A nicely done Borzoi head complete with veining and correct ears, I value this at $35.

Another hard to determine sculpting material is this painted ceramic or what-have-you pin. It is quite thick and large, measuring 3 x 3". Another apparently homemade brooch depicting a typical Borzoi pose with a lovely outline also having a correct ear (only one shows). Sadly no signature so I have no idea who produced this. A bit on the large side and heavy to wear, I still value this at $35.

A lovely standing Borzoi with long well arched neck and in perfect show coat. With correct ears and great angulation, this dog appears to be a winner to me! At nearly 3" tall it is signed SR © 2006, the value to me is $25.

A familiar scene at many people's homes is this silly Borzoi holding a stuffed bunny with a coy "I want to play" expression. This 3" tall cutie pie is unmarked and made of some type of clay. Valued at $30 due to subject matter and adorableness.

Big, gaudy and lovely describes this next ceramic headstudy. A caricature in true form with head tucked into its neck and eyes that would melt the coldest heart. It measures 4" long and signed by Mary Ellen Smith, who is an all-breed ceramic sculptor often designing one of a kind Borzoi pieces, of which many are in my own collection. Quite a talented lady, I value this "pendant" at $35.

Last but certainly not least is this ding-a-ling Borzoi. Sure he looks like a ding-a-ling but he also makes a sound like one. The tongue on the Borzoi hangs within the mouth the way a clangor would hang inside a bell. The first time I saw a necklace just like this was many years ago at a Midwest Borzoi Club Detroit Specialty. It was being worn by one of our all-time favorite ladies, Nadine Johnson. I never got this out of my mind and was delighted to have found one hiding on a website several years ago. It measures 3 1/2" long and signed A. Martin. Sometimes wearing this drives people crazy with the jingling, but I just smile and keep walking. I highly value this hard to find piece at $85.

It was fun to see so many old friends at the recent BCOA National as well as making face contact with friends I have met through

The first person listed as the dog's owner by AKC must be a BCOA member to be included. To be ranked #1 overall at year's end, a dog must have at least 3 QS from the regular classes and all QS from the regular classes will be averaged for that dog. To be ranked #1 in any particular class at year's end only 1 score is needed.

Started in 2016 was the offering of an OVERALL #1 dog in rally. Same rules apply to rally as to obedience. A minimum of 3 scores are needed to be the OVERALL #1 dog. All of the dogs scores from rally are averaged so if a dog competes in more than level all of his scores are rolled into one. Just like obedience, only 1 score is required to be #1 in any given class. PLEASE NOTE that my e-mail addy as listed under coordinator in the membership book is incorrect as it is missing an 'l' on the end of my name.

READYBORZOI

Hurricanes can be frightening things to be caught in. But with some forethought and preparation, you can make a storm easier and safer for you and your pets.

BRING THE DOG

Don't leave your pet at home! While most evacuations last only a few days, there are times that you may not be able to return quickly. The safest place for your pet is with you.

SPECIAL NEEDS

People with special needs or without transportation who have pets should contact their parish/county emergency managers (e.g. Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness) well ahead of time so that they can be registered for requiring special assistance.

PET FRIENDLY

If you are going to a hotel, call in advance to determine that your large breeds are welcome. Many hotels relax policies during crisis, but don't assume.

MAKE A KIT

Be sure that your pets are up-to-date on all vaccinations and bring proof of vaccinations with you. It is a good idea to ask your veterinarian now for a copy of your pet's vaccination record. Keep this with your emergency kit.

If your pet is on medication, bring at least a two week supply (including heart worm preventative, flea preventative).

Put together first aid supplies. The AVMA has a great checklist at <https://www.avma.org/public/EmergencyCare/Pages/Supplies-Checklist>.

In addition to your own emergency supplies, stock a pet hurricane box with leashes, food bowls, water, sealable containers for food, bedding, chews, treats, toys, and grooming supplies.

LEASH UP

If you're staying home to ride out the storm, keep your dog in its carrier or on a leash. You never know when you might be forced to evacuate. And even if that doesn't happen, you don't want to be tracking down a petrified dog during the chaos. Therefore, secure your pet before the storm hits.

ID ID ID ID ID

Identification of your pet is crucial! Microchips or tattoos are ideal. In addition, consider a break-away collar with your number embroidered on.

Create an id file for each dog. This is an insurance policy against the irrevocable loss of your pet in the event of a disaster.

The file should include current photographs (you will have to show a photograph to have your animal released to you from a shelter, or other holding facility; including yourself in the photos will facilitate this process), microchip identification number, adoption papers, a written description of your pet (canine, Borzoi, female, 7 years old, brindle, 70 lbs, etc), a description of your pet's distinctive markings (white paws, black spot on side, etc.), diet, medications, vaccination history, behavioral issues and personality. Place the file in a water-proof folder, and put it with your Pet Evacuation Kit.

Facebook. There was a plethora of items to be purchased at the many Borzoi booths, as well as the yearly BCOA Collectibles Auction. I hope you found just the right piece to display with pride at your house and that it reminds you how lucky we are to be involved with such an artistic yet silly breed. There truly is no other personality like a Borzoi and I'm glad to have grown up with them in my life since 1969.

Aristocrat Mission Statement

The Aristocrat is the official publication of the Borzoi Club of America and is published quarterly in order to inform, educate and entertain the members by providing historical and current information on the Breed and issues affecting the well-being of our Borzoi.

Statement of Intent:

It is the intent that the Aristocrat:

- Serve as a record of BCOA and its activities
- To provide a convenient forum for the reporting of statistics on the accomplishments of the members in conformation and performance events.

Policies

- Deadlines for submission of material for the Aristocrat are February 15, May 15, August 15 and November 15. A separate Specialty issue may be offered so that the results can be published as soon as possible after the National.
- Deadlines established by the Aristocrat Committee will be strictly adhered to.
- The right to reasonably edit all material or refuse to print material thought to be questionable or not in the best interest of the breed or Club is reserved by the Aristocrat Committee and the Editor.
- Only signed letters or articles will be accepted for use.
- Only Borzoi-related artwork will be utilized for the cover of the Aristocrat. If artwork is not available for a particular issue then the Club Logo shall be utilized for the cover.
- The following material will be published in the Aristocrat issue immediately following the National Specialty:
 - o Photos of the recipients of the Annual Awards in:
 - Conformation
 - Best Opposite Sex in Conformation
 - Obedience
 - Open Field Coursing
 - Lure Coursing
 - LGRA
 - Breeder of Top Conformation Borzoi
 - Top Junior Showman
 - o Photos of the Specialty Conformation and Performance Winners
 - o Judge's critique of Conformation classes
 - o Catalog pages and performance results
 - o Candid photos as available

Guidelines

- Articles submitted by BCOA Committee Chairs will be included as available
- Any claims or statements by writers in the Aristocrat represent their own opinions and are not necessarily those of the Aristocrat Committee or the Officers and Directors of the Borzoi Club of America.
- All content is subject to the final approval of the Aristocrat Committee.
- Results and photos from BCOA Trophy Supported entries will be included as provided by the TSE Show Chairman.
