There was something about "Elliott"

GCHS (NOHSgold) CH Korsakov Love A Mystery At Lost Key
SC CGC DCAT RATN TKE

On April 20, 2016, breeders Jane Maddox Bishop (Korsakov), Patricia Triandos and Linda Harvey welcomed ten pups whelped by CH Korsakov's Vanilla Creme out of Swedish sire C.I.B., DK CH, FI CH, NO CH, SE CH Lynx Seri Savitskij (Tolstoy).

"Elliott" (green collar) 4 weeks

When the pups were four weeks old, my family and I visited Patricia's home to have a look. All were active and exploring, watching Patricia and what she was doing except the green collared boy. Green collar waddled over to my sister-in-law (who was with us) and sat quietly while she stroked and petted him. There was something special about the green collared boy.

Seven more weeks passed and it was time to drive to Patricias and choose. From photos, I knew that orange and blue collared boys looked promising and green collar had already caught my eye at the four week visit with his sweet/attentive demeanor. My daughter, Arianna, came with me and when we walked into the puppy paddock, green collar boy immediately came out and went to Arianna and stood up to get closer (the beginning of Elliott's famous hugs). The other pups followed except for blue collar boy who was fast asleep. Patricia brought out a lure and green collar boy bypassed the other pups to get to it (the instinct to course?). I had to make a decision. Green or orange collar? Blue collar still fast asleep inside. Who should we choose? We both knew green collar was the one for us! Arianna had insisted we name the new pup Elliott after the dragon in the movie Pete's Dragon and so green collar boy, now "Elliott," Arianna and I began the 15+ hour drive home. "Elliott" cried for about 15 min then suddenly stopped and took the rest of the trip like a pro: walking on lead, going potty and remaining calm for the remainder of the trip.

"Elliott" with Ari and Ross 11 weeks

We arrived home and our only borzoi, a 9 year-old girl, "Caly" welcomed Elliott's company and tried to keep up but it was futile. Elliott was the energizer borzoi, zooming the yard, twirling in the air and exhibiting an athleticism unmatched by our previous borzoi. He "hunted" non stop and bugs and lizards were his favorite targets.

"Elliott" 12 wks chasing moths

"Elliott" 4 yrs with "Myst"

As a pup, Elliott showed a great willingness to please and moved easily on lead so I decided to enter him in a few shows just to get him used to the sights and sounds. At 9 mo old we entered a TSE where he earned a BOS in sweeps (Joyce Law) and a RWD (Dr. Ron Spritzer). We attended the 2017 BCOA National where 13 mo old Elliott's most memorable moment came when he gave a hug to Judge Helen Lee. This was caught on video, but sadly Elliott's regular class performance (and hug) was mistakenly edited out of the BCOA CD. After that we attended a several more shows and at 16 mos he earned his AKC championship, 22 mo. AKC grand, 23 mo. his first Regular GROUP FIRST and first OHBIS followed by more regular and Owner handled group placements! There was something special about "Elliott". Barn hunt was new to me and a trial came to our area. I figured we would check it out and soon "Elliott" earned a Barn hunt Novice title and was a crowd favorite. Everyone cheered for the 32.5 " handsome dog who squeezed through tunnels and nimbly walked over hay bales searching for rats. It isn't often in barn hunt you see a large sighthound competing and most thought There was something special about "Elliott". I had always been hesitant to try lure coursing with any of our dogs, but "Elliott" showed an intensity during fast cats and I decided to let him. He was 4 yrs old when we went to his first trial. He QC'd and then we went back to the conformation shows. He was just shy of FIVE years when I entered him in a handful of AKC LC trials where he earned 8 points including a major and an SC title. There was something special about "Elliott".

"Elliott" loved the three of us (my husband, daughter and me) equally. We were greeted with joy and the "hug". Sometimes our greetings included all the tricks Elliott had learned for his trick dog titles: High fives, wiping tears, sitting pretty, turning in circles (both directions) saying his prayers... one after another with a twinkle in his eye. He clearly enjoyed and understood games. I remember when I began finding the little rubber door stopper tips laying right where it fell from the post. I examined it for bite marks and found none. This began happening more often to stoppers in different rooms. One day I found another on the floor next to the door post, replaced it and walked away thinking maybe they are old and need to be changed. Elliott casually walked past me and into the room where I had just replaced the stopper. I tip-toed over and looked around the corner to find Elliott had just removed the stopper and had dropped it on the floor. He looked up at me and wagged his tail in huge circles as if he was proud of this game he invented. A day never went by without finding one stopper pulled and dropped and the game repeated.

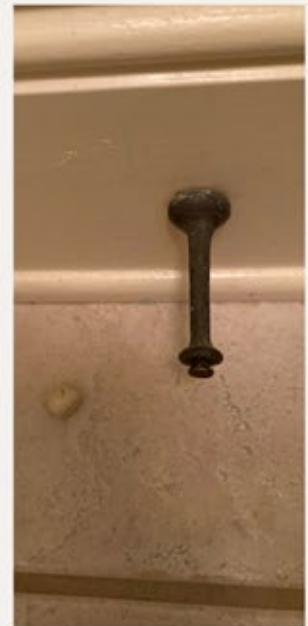

There was something special about "Elliott".

A Hug..

A Prayer..

And a Game..

"Elliott's" accomplishments are numerous: AKC Silver Grand Champion, NOHS Gold Level, AKC Senior Courser and Barn Hunt Novice. He had recently earned the highest trick dog title - Elite. "Elliott" was within 30 points of becoming only the third Platinum owner-handled borzoi and had been entered in a few upcoming shows in the hope of attaining that goal.

He had the loveliest, gliding, effortless, flowing gait that caught judge's attention and propelled us to wins and titles I never thought possible.

Aside from the titles, ribbons and awards, "Elliott" made the biggest impact on all who met him with his sweet and friendly personality, willingness to please, his tricks, his hugs, his lovely conformation and expression, his presence and beauty. I and my family are blessed and thankful to have been loved and to have lived with this unique dog and its all because...

There was something special about "Elliott".

On August 16, 2022 "Elliott" did not want to get up. After gentle coaxing he got into my car and I drove to my vet who performed an x-ray which showed a small splenic mass, possibly leaking blood. I took "Elliott" to the ER vet where an ultrasound was performed and a splenic mass leaking blood was confirmed. No other abnormalities were noted and the doctors (including my own) felt I should let him go. I laid next to my sweet boy, told him how much I/we loved him and my voice and touch were the last he heard and felt...

Our darling boy, zoom, jump, spin, perform your tricks, hunt bugs and lizards , give old Caly's tail a gentle tug and I'm hoping in heaven you will find..door stoppers.

Zadira finished his AKC FC/DC winning BOB both days at the AKC LC national in 2022. He was #1 oval racing Borzoi 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022 and #1 straight racing Borzoi 2020 and 2021. A son of his was best in futurity at the 2022 BCOA national. To say we are proud would be an understatement.

DEPRESSED OVER DEPRESSION GLASS

Depression glass, sometimes beautiful, but finding information is almost as hard as locating the items themselves. Originally, I was going to write this article for one of the regional Borzoi club newsletters, but due to the lack of information I postponed it. That was over two years ago and I have not found any more information than I had then.

In that time I have packed up our pieces to take to Depression Glass shows with me. I always got the same replies. "Oh, I haven't seen those before." "I had that but sold it last show and I really did not know anything about it." And, "You need to get the book on kitchen glasses." I no longer take our pieces with me and I still have not found the mysterious book on kitchen glasses. It seems odd that none of the shows have this book for sale when I think that there is a copy for sale of every other book on Depression Glass ever printed.

The first group (Photo III) is the cobalt blue wear. We have three glasses and an ice bucket in this particular design. The breeds depicted in white on the pieces are Borzoi, Pekingese, Scottie, and Boston Terrier. All are shown with bows on their necks and leashes coming out of the bows. I was told by a Depression Glass dealer that these were put out by Anchor (probably Anchor Hocking) and are in the larger grouping titled "Sports." This same group has golfers and sailboats in it. In addition, I was told that there are additional pieces of cocktail shaker, ice crusher and pitcher. The glasses may be found in sets of six with a wire holder and cobalt blue stirrers. Some of the ice buckets may have the chrome holder and tongs.

I have seen another set of cobalt blue glasses and pitcher with a different design. The design was of a "Southern Belle" and Borzoi. I saw these in about 1974 and have never seen them again. I have not found anyone who can tell me anything about this set either. Some dealers have had vague memories of seeing a set in the distant past and nothing more.

In Photo 112 are clear glasswear with the designs in black and white. Again the dogs on the items are on leads but the leclds are the opposite color of the dog. The dogs depicted are the same breeds as on the cobalt blue glasses, but the designs are different. The cocktail shaker and ice crusher have breeds at the top in black (Scottie, Pekingese, and Boston) and two Borzoi at the bottom in white. There is also a pitcher and ice bucket that goes with this set, unfortunately, I have not been able to find them. I do not know who made these or the name of the pattern. The glasses may be found in sets of eight that set in a holder that resembles a white picket fence.

I have another clear glass with black and white designs (not shown). There are no leashes or bows on these dogs and the white dogs are in a circle at the top of the glasses while the black dogs are in a circle at the bottom. The white figures depict a Borzoi, Scottie and Boxer while the black figures are a Borzoi and two Scotties. I don't know of any accessory pieces that go with this set. I also do not know any other information on them as I just found these last August.

Photo #13 is a clear glass but the figures are red and black. These glasses have a shield with an "F" in the bottom of the glass. I am told that this is the symbol used by Federal. The top figures are in red and show a Borzoi and Scottie. The bottom figures are in black and show a Pekingese, Boston and Smooth Fox Terrier. The dogs again have bows but leashes are chain. I have not seen any other pieces that match this set and the dealers I have shown them to have not seen anything like them.

Photo #14 is a tray. Two of the figures closely match the figures on the set in Photo #12. Like those figures, these are black and white with leashes and bows of the opposite color. The background is a solid red. Two of the figures are different; they are the Boxer and Wire Fox Terrier (could be an Airedale). I showed the tray to several dealers and they all agree that it is from the 1930's but no one knew anything about it.

Every other set of Depression Glass that I have seen have depicted Scotties. I know that there are several different Scottie sets but since I do not collect Scottie items I can not give any details on them.

I hope that this article has been of some interest. I would really appreciate hearing from anyone who has any information on Depression Glass sets. If I have any errors in the information I would also appreciate corrections. All that I have has been the word of dealers and I wonder how much they know as they keep telling me that the items I have do not exist. If you are in an area that has a Depression Glass club you might wish to check with a member of the club about finding pieces you are interested in. They can also tell you when and where the next show is and with some luck you never know what you will find. Happy Hunting.

III. New Titles For Borzoi in 1965

In 1965 for New Champions, the AKC only published registered name, registration number, the sire and dam with their registration numbers, and the stud book dates. There are no stud book dates for the sire and dam of imported dogs. For Obedience titles the AKC only published the registered name and registration number. The editor has added sex (D) or (B), date of birth, breeder, owner, stud book date (after title completed) and the BCOA Registry of Merit title. The date for titles is the date the title was finished, which is the publication date in the AKC Gazette minus 2 months, since it took 2 months for show results and 2 to 3 months for obedience results to be published in the Gazette.
