A President's farewell...

by Ron Williams

In 2009, the BCOA Nominating committee and my partner, the late Dr. Fred Edlin, approached me to consider running for Region 1 Governor. I was a little intimidated that I could no longer sit back, relax and let other members make the necessary decisions on behalf of BCOA. Joining BCOA in 1991, I truly felt I had not been a member long enough to consider such a role and represent my region. Even though I was employed by Automatic Data Processing and managing computer projects for major auto manufacturers across the U.S. and Canada, I felt I was out of my element. I had to learn quickly how a national dog club conducted its business. It helped that my region accepted me in this new position. I completely appreciate and thank you for that.

In 2017, the Nominating Committee approached me to consider running for President. Here we go again. Am I really ready to represent BCOA in this capacity? I believe it was the love I developed for the breed and BCOA's previous officers and members I've met through the years—those experiences made me overcome any fear I had. I wanted to represent the club to the best of my ability and to the highest level set by some of the past Presidents we were lucky to have.

There have been some wonderful and not so wonderful times being on the Board. The wonderful times were plenty and easy to deal with. The not so wonderful times started with the COVID years! It was during this time I saw the passion our members had about the breed. Some of it was not well placed. However, if no one cared, there wouldn't be any passion at all. The Board had to make decisions no other Board had to consider: cancelling the 2020 National. Even though it was the rational decision to make for the club and the safety of our members, it was not popular to some. I stand by that decision. However, it will haunt me.

I found that making tough decisions is what being on the Board is all about. There're a couple of sayings I tried to follow, "you can't please every person all the time" and "the buck stops here". You just need to be able to lay your head on the pillow at night and feel you made correct decisions on behalf of the Borzoi Club of America while keeping your personal feelings out of it.

This brings me to the below list of officers serving on the Board with me for 13 years. Thank you for your integrity and support. Also, without your being on the Board I wouldn't have the opportunity to get to know you as well as I have. I've developed lifelong friendships to cherish. Please forgive me if I missed your name.

Barbara O'Neill, Lorrie Scott and Karen Mays all deserve special mention for their insurmountable support, love and friendship since day one of our introduction.

I also want to thank all the Standing Committee Chairs (most were in these positions throughout my presidency) that accepted positions and the many people who volunteered but didn't hold official positions. These folks, in their roles, work just as hard as Officers. Being on the Board or serving as a Chairman is not an easy job. They have earned and deserve our respect.

The selfie of me and my homies was taken at my last Awards Banquet as President. Thank you again for your support. I am humbled by the love I received. It was a Blast! I look forward to seeing you again in the role of being just a member who loves Borzoi and the Borzoi Club of America! Best of luck to the 2024 BCOA Board and committees.

Stay safe and spread kindness. §

Borzoi beauty, performance and breeding value assessment in Russia

by Natalia Romanova, August 2023

In the FCI standard No. 193 / 04.09.2019, Russian Borzoi in Russian language (country of origin of the breed and the holder of the standard) indicates “With working trial”, and in translation into other official languages of the FCI, this paragraph has been changed to its opposite in meaning: “without working trial”. In my opinion, this is a fundamental moment for understanding the breed, setting priorities during the examination of Borzoi in the show ring and evaluating the exterior in terms of its functionality.

The purpose of this article is to acquaint fanciers of the Russian Borzoi abroad with the methodology used for assessing the breeding stock and working qualities of dogs that exists in Russia in parallel with the FCI regulations for dog shows and competitions in coursing (racing).

The RKF (Russian Kennel Federation) and FCI show regulations are well known; therefore, I will focus only on dog shows and field trial regulations of the RORS (hereinafter referred to as the Hunting Union), since it has fundamental differences, in particular, a comprehensive assessment of dogs by exterior, working qualities, origin and descendants (bonitirovka). Understanding these rules is important for judges and breeders who see exhibitions not only as a beauty contest and handler competition, but also as an assessment of the breeding stock.

Historical information about dog shows and stud books

In the 19th century, dog breeding and cynology in Russia were closely associated with hunting with Borzois. There was the Imperial Society for the Breeding of Game Animals and Proper Hunting, which was engaged not only in compiling hunting regulations, but also in conducting field trials, competitions and dog shows. It was the Imperial Society that held the first dog show in Russia in December 1874, at which only hunting breeds were presented for evaluation by the Judging Commission: 17 groups of Borzois, 40 hounds and 39 gun dogs. Since then, hunting dog shows were held regularly until the 1917 revolution, and they resumed in 1923.

In 1958, the Union of the Hunters Society was created, which united regional organizations of hunters, and in 1962 became known as Rosokhotrybolovsoyuz, abbreviated as RORS (Hunting Union). This organization maintains a database of hunting dogs, conducts dog shows and field trials, and issues documents for hunting dogs.

The All Russian Stud Book of Hunting Dogs (VPKOS) determines the procedure for registering, systematizing, and accounting for the origin of dogs. It has been conducted since the beginning of the 1990s by the Department of Hunting Dog Breeding of the Rosokhotrybolovsoyuz (RORS), continuing the recording and numbering of the All Russian Pedigree and Breeding Book of Hunting Dogs (VRKOS), which was maintained after 1917 by the Vsekokhotsoyuz and served as a continuation of the Genealogy Book of the Moscow Hunting Society (RKMOO). In turn, the genealogical book of the Moscow Hunting Society (RK MOO) was kept from 1890 and was a continuation of the English Stud Book traditions in Russia.

After 1962, only the dogs with a full four-generation pedigree, an exterior evaluation of at least “good” and a diploma in field trials could be recorded in the All Russian Pedigree and Breeding Book of Hunting Dogs. For the record, it was necessary to send the Rosokhotrybolovsoyuz a genuine certificate of origin for a hunting dog and a copy taken from it, certified by the organization in which the dog is registered (for a dog imported from abroad, it was also necessary to send a photocopy of the pedigree with which it arrived in the USSR)

If the dog subsequently received more field diplomas, changed its class, or it had a qualified offspring, then all additional information about it should be sent to the Hunting Union to replenish the information in the VRKOS database.

Because earlier clubs and regional cynological organizations kept their own stud books and issued pedigrees, there was no single database and the RKF, since the date of registration in 1996, did the same. In 1999, the RKF entered into an associate membership agreement with the FCI, and since 2002, only the RKF, and not its member organizations, has the exclusive right to issue only the RKF, and not its member organizations, has the exclusive right to issue pedigrees. Since 2003, the RKF has become a full member of the FCI and is guided by its main provisions in the organization of dog shows and breeding.

Abstracts from dog show regulations of the Hunting Union (RORS)

Dog shows in accordance with the regulations of the Hunting Union (RORS) are carried out in order to:

a) determine the quality and assess the hunting dogs by compliance to the breed standard, type of constitution and exterior;

b) monitor inherited traits in young dogs and take this information into account when making mating plans and further use of breeding dogs;

c) demonstrate achievements and promote purebred hunting dogs;

d) identify the best dogs in terms of breed type, type of constitution and exterior and determine by the quality of the progeny the correctness of their selection, according to the exterior;

e) encourage owners of the best breeding dogs.

The regulations for judges in accordance with the “Rules for exhibitions of hunting dogs held by Rosokhotrybolovsoyuz” and “Breed Standards of hunting dogs” are the following:

a) all dogs in the ring are examined both in motion (walking, trotting) and in free standing (Note: the dogs are moving following each other in a circle around while the judge determines a mark and placement for each dog in the class, asking the owner to move ahead by one or a few dogs. At the end of judging the class, all the dogs are lined up, starting with the class winner, followed by others with “excellent”, then with “very good”, etc.)

b) a standing dog is examined in a natural pose that does not distort its actual shape and build;

c)) examination of teeth and bite is done before the final placement of the dogs.

The judging is carried out during daylight hours (Note: outdoors in any weather). Dog evaluation (judging) under artificial lighting is not allowed.

When conducting an examination of dogs in the conformation ring, both features that are closely related to the constitution and physical development, as well as specific characteristics of each breed, are taken into account. The dog in the ring should be considered with all his qualities, failings or faults, as a whole, and not regarded by separate, isolated, positive or negative features.

Dogs from 10 months to 10 years old and puppies from 4 to 10 months old are allowed to enter the show and are divided into the following age groups:

- a) young: from 10 months to 1.5 years;
- b) intermediate: from 1.5 to 3 years;
- c) adult: from 3 to 10 years.

The judge is obliged to compare the tattoo (dog identification) with the number indicated in the document and make a note about it in the evaluation sheet.

Depending on the qualities of the conformation and constitution, the dogs in the conformation ring are awarded marks: “excellent”, “very good”, “good”, “satisfactory”. In the younger age group, the mark “excellent” is not awarded. Puppies under 10 months of age do not receive conformation ratings. They are reviewed by a judge by the litters and individually. The expert in the report gives an opinion on the compliance to the breed standard of the puppy, its development, as well as the expediency or inexpediency of repeating the mating from which these puppies were born.

At the end of the examination in the exterior evaluation ring, the expert proceeds to a comprehensive assessment of dogs (Annex 2) and determination of their breeding class and ordinal places in the class based on the data of evaluation sheets, submitted certificates and other documents, in accordance with the rules of exhibitions (rules of exhibitions (Annex 1)).

Borzoï breeding classes

A comprehensive assessment of dogs is made up of assessments for the following indicators:

- a) hunting qualities
- b) breed type, constitution and exterior
- c) origin
- d) offspring

Dogs of the younger, middle and older age groups that have diplomas for field trials recognized by the RORS and received at this show a rating of at least “good” are subject to a comprehensive assessment.

Prior to the show, preliminary data on dogs is being prepared

For each recorded dog in the evaluation sheet (see Appendix), sections are filled in:

- 1 - general information
- 2 - origin
- 3 - list of qualified descendants of the dog.

On the conformation ring, the show judge and assistants clarify the data of the evaluation sheets and fill in section IV of the evaluation sheet and paragraph 2 of section V for breed, constitution and conformation in accordance with the assessment received at this show

Ancestors are evaluated: maximum 20 points based on:

Evaluation by origin is made on the basis of the dog’s pedigree, confirming its origin and the presence of ancestors of the next four generations (parents, grandfathers, great-grandfathers, great-great-grandfathers), as well as the field and conformation assessment of the parents.

a) the presence of parents (father and mother), 1 point each (1X2) = 2 points;

b) if the parents have an assessment for the exterior (obtained at the events of RORS not lower than “good”, not lower than “good”, two points are added for each parent (2X2) = 4 points;

c)) if the parents have a field trial diploma (obtained at the events of RORS or recognized by it), 2 points are added for each (2X2) = 4 points. Total maximum for parents (2X5) = 10 points;

d) in the presence of grandfathers and grandmothers, 1 point each (1X4) = 4 points;

e) in the presence of great-grandfathers and great-grandmothers, 0.5 points each (0.5X8) = 4 points;

f) in the presence of great-great-grandparents and great-great-grandmothers, 0.125 points each (0.125X 16) = 2 points. In the absence of one of the ancestors, the other ancestor of this pair is not taken into account.

Evaluating dogs of foreign origin

In the case of a dog of foreign origin, the first generation ancestors take into account the available conformation and hunting qualities assessments according to the table “Designations of field tests (tests) of hunting dogs conducted in FCI organizations and equated to the presence of a field trial diploma for the ancestors of the first generation of the pedigree (parents).

Evaluating hunting qualities

When evaluating hunting qualities, only two field trials diplomas of the highest degree are taken into account, the main and additional (repeated).

Depending on the degree of the diploma for hunting qualities, the main points are set:

a) FIRST degree the highest) - 40 points;

b) SECOND degree - 35 points;

c) THIRD degree - 30 points.

For dogs from pairs and packs of sighthounds, the main points for the diplomas received in the group test are given in full, as in individual tests or competitions. An additional diploma (repeated) is any diploma of the highest degree. An additional point is counted on the basis of the next highest degree diploma received by the dog for work, regardless of whether it was received alone, in a pair, pack, and is established: for a diploma of the 1st degree 10 points; for a diploma of the 2nd degree 8 points; for a diploma of the 3rd degree 5 points.

Evaluating dogs by offspring

When evaluating dogs by offspring, only their direct descendants (children) who have a field trial diploma alone in profile types of tests and an exterior grade of at least “GOOD ” are taken into account and evaluated. Only six best descendants are taken into account as much as possible (maximum 36 points). For each such offspring, both male and female, points are counted according to the following table:

Exterior score	EXCELLENT	VERY GOOD	GOOD
Score points	3	2	1
Hunting qualities points	I-st degree diploma	II-nd degree diploma	III-rd degree diploma
Score points	3	2	1

When assessing “SATISFACTORY”, no points are awarded and points for the hunting qualities of the offspring are not taken into account.

Points for conformation

The point mark for conformation is given on the basis of the mark obtained by the dog only at this show. The following points are awarded for the marks obtained at the show: 1. EXCELLENT: 40 points; 2. VERY GOOD: 30 points; 3. GOOD: 20 points.

Breeding classes

In accordance with the tables of minimum requirements for determining the class, attached to these Rules (Appendix No. 1), dogs are divided into four breeding classes : “class ELITE ”, “FIRST breeding class”, “SECOND breeding class”, “THIRD breeding (reserve) Class”. Determination of the breeding class (bonitation) of dogs is made by an expert in the ring. For dogs passing to the “ELITE” and “FIRST” classes, an entry in the All Russian Stud Book of Hunting Dogs (VPKOS) is required. For dogs that have breeding documents of countries with organizations of which there is an appropriate cooperation agreement, an entry in the national studbooks is taken into account. The place of each dog in each class is determined in accordance with the total score for a comprehensive assessment.

The highest place in the class is occupied by the dog, evaluated by the highest total score as a result of the comprehensive assessment. If the total scores are equal, the question of the dog’s place in the class is decided depending on the scores in four sections of the comprehensive assessment in the following sequence: 1) by offspring; 2) by hunting qualities; 3) on the exterior; 4) by origin. If all these indicators are equal, the dog that takes the best place in the conformation ring at this show has the advantage.

Rules for field trials (testing of hunting performance of Borzois on a free prey)

- Field trials of sight hounds are carried out on an adult hare and on a fox living in a wild (Comment: No captured or domesticated animals can be used or released in the field trials).

Trials are carried out mainly between October 1 and December 1, depending on local conditions. Each dog that passes the performance test in the trials receives an individual rating. Two or three dogs (pair or pack) belonging to the same owner can also receive a group performance evaluation as well as the individual one, provided they are kept on the same leash (rope)

Dogs are not judged and dismissed from the trials in the following cases:

- The dogs are launched on the prey that got up against the neighbouring pack of dogs. Dogs are launched on a young (baby) animal or at a distance closer than 25 m.

- The dogs returned from the pursuit of the prey leaving it in sight, having galloped no more than 200 m.

- The hunter (handler) deliberately did not let the dogs follow the prey that got up within the limits established for distance test (up to 100 m.

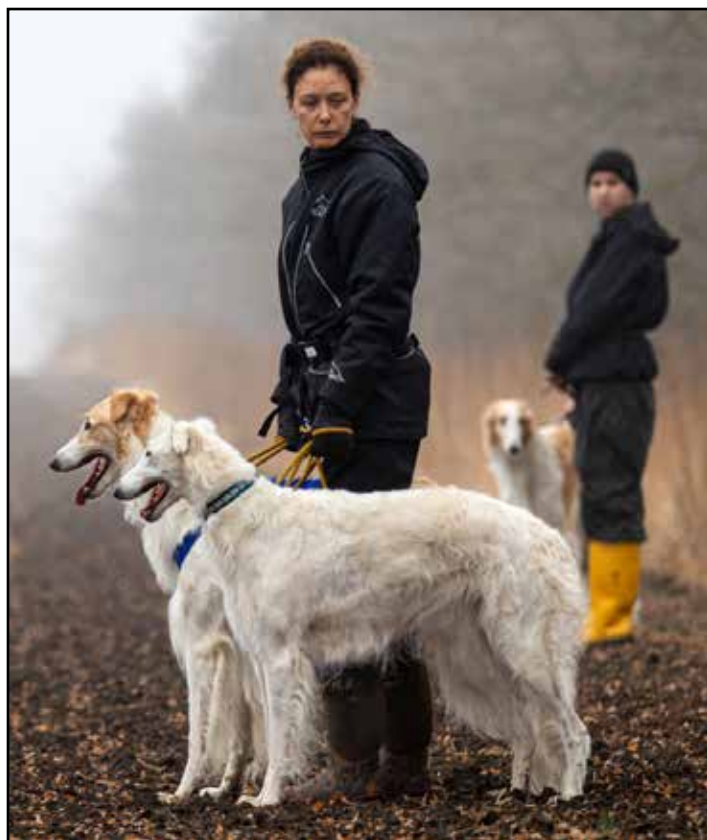

- Dogs attack domestic animals A dog tearing a caught prey is not awarded diplomas.

Hunting qualities demonstrated at the field trials are estimated according to the following table of maximum points

Speed	Sight	Persistence in pursuit (follow)	Strength and endurance	Ability to catch	Master skill (individual), team work (in brace and group)	Behaviour			Total score
						On the leash	Off the leash	Attitude to captured beast
30	10	10	10	15	5	5	5	10	100

Field trial diplomas are awarded to Borzois in case a dog gets the following minimal number of points by each key performance element.

Performance elements evaluated	Minimal total score amount by certain parameters
	I degree diploma	II degree	III degree
Total score	80	70	60
Speed	24	21	18
Attitude to captured prey	8	7	6
Master skill (individual), team work (in pairs or pack)	4	4	3

BCOA Health Committee News

by Virginia E. Jones

The first piece of news is to introduce our new Health Committee Member, Emily Killian, who is now serving on the Information Team. Emily has a strong and impressive background in both writing and computer skills. She will be key in getting our website and Facebook page where they need to be both in content and appearance by taking the lead on these projects. She will also be providing additional articles for the Aristocrat, where her skills as an award-winning published journalist are sure to shine much brighter than mine! I would like to welcome Emily to our BCOA Health Committee. I'm delighted to have her on board!

As we approach the New Year and get ready to close the book on the old, I took a few moments to reflect on events of this past year. And while it was a year of much turmoil in far too many ways to list, there were many positive and hopeful events to offset these. The generosity of our many members who have contributed financially to BCOA Health are so very much appreciated. You're helping to ensure we can continue to offer health clinics, seminars and invest in research for the benefit of all our members' Borzoi, their owners, and breeders. My sincere thank you to all of you! The steps that the Morris Animal Foundation (MAF) have taken this year with their focus on Canine Cancer Research initiatives gives me great hope for the future. On November first and second, MAF conducted another round of Scientific Review meetings of research proposals from the best and brightest in the field of cancer research. These meetings included all areas of cancer research other than Hemangiosarcoma, which had a dedicated scientific review process earlier this spring. This fall review process included 47 proposals around enhanced diagnostics, novel treatments and further investigation into potential hereditary and environmental causes. I anxiously await hearing news of which of these proposals will be approved and fully funded research projects in the new year.

I wish you all a holiday of hope, peace and great joy from my home and heart to yours!

Please be sure to read Karen Klein's informative article (below) on safely enjoying the holidays with your Borzoi, family, and friends. Karen has lots of good tips and advice to share.

Until next year, all the best to you and yours!

Not all that glitters...

by Karen Klein, PhD, Karanoff Borzoi

Picture this: It's December 25, 2023. The candles are lit. The newly decorated balsam tree, mounded with ornaments, garlands, tiny lights and tinsel, sits in the living room. Bing Crosby sings on the radio in the background, wishing everyone to have a Merry Little Christmas. The table is set with your best dinnerware and polished silver. In the center of the beautifully set table is a golden cooked turkey surrounded by dishes of candied yams, lovely cooked vegetables, mashed potatoes, gravy, a clove studded ham, cranberry relish and stuffing. Several kinds of pies sit on the sideboard.

Just as everyone raises their glasses of wine to toast each other and wish everyone a Merry Christmas, you hear the sound of your beautiful Borzoi Sasha barfing in the kitchen. You're all startled and somewhat embarrassed and go to check on him to see if he's all right. To your horror, he's regurgitated not only some brown substance that is probably from the platter of chocolate fudge squares, but something glittery, which is most likely something from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree in the living room.

According to Pat Bailey writing on the UC Davis website (Dec. 2012) "...the holidays are filled with traditional foods and decorations" and "those same items can cause harm to your pets if ingested. Every year at the UC Davis William R. Pritchard Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital, veterinarians treat pets that get sick from eating the holiday decorations and treats." She also quotes Karl Jandrey, an assistant professor of clinical small animal emergency and intensive care at UC Davis, who said "most of the items ingested are only minimally harmful. However, some seemingly harmless holiday items can cause internal damage or even death to your pet." If you are a longtime Borzoi owner, you probably know most of the holiday items considered harmful to your dog if ingested, but here is a short list as a reminder or for those new to the breed.

- Food such as chocolate, sweets, and other baked goods; turkey skin, turkey or table scraps; yeast dough
- Decorations like tinsel, ornaments, water additives to the Christmas tree, candles, electric lights, flowers or festive plants, potpourris
- Hosting a party or having guests over? Watch the exits. Even if your pets are comfortable around guests, make sure you watch them closely, especially when people are entering or leaving your home. While you're welcoming hungry guests and collecting coats, a very fast four-legged family member may make a break for it out the door and become lost. Also, your dogs should have access to a comfortable, quiet place inside if they want to retreat. Make sure your dog has a room or crate somewhere away from the commotion, where your guests won't follow, that it can go to anytime it wants to get away. If guests ask to bring their own dogs and

CHALK IS.....

Chalk statues date back quite a few years and were produced in Europe as well as the U. S.. They were popular during the 1920's, 1930's and again in the late 1950's to mid 1960's. A help in distinguishing the early statues from the newer ones is the finish. The older statues, of better quality, had a pearlized finish that in some cases is close to an enamel. With age and wear this finish will flake and peel like paint. The carnival statues were mass produced and are of lesser quality. There were often airbrushed with glitter added. The animals were usually marked with blotches and blobs of color. These pieces also appeared at dime stores and souvenir booths. I remember seeing several Borzoi figures when I was a child at both the Virginia State Fair and various souvenir booths.

The dating of pieces can not be done purely by the "style" or look of a piece. Many of the earlier pieces have been mass re-produced within the past few years. Two prime examples of this are the "Sultana" and "Southern Bell" statues. Most of these copies are made in Mexico and can be composed of several different things including chalk, plastic polymer, alabaster, and salt. Recently though, a friend found two lovely chalk statues in the French Quarter. They are not Mexican copies but American reproductions. The finish is not pearlized but it is of the same type as was used on the earlier pieces. The women in these statues are colored mostly white with only little other color; eyes, hair, lips and skin on the woman.

Some of the older chalk pieces are signed and dated. Some of the pieces made in the U.S. will carry the year and the company name as well as a copyright mark. One of the most expensive chalks actually has a thin metal covering. This covering is usually copper and so these statues will look like bronzes at a quick look. They are nicely detailed. European chalks are less common in the U.S. and to my knowledge we have none in our collection.

I have enclosed some photos of some different chalk pieces in our collection. This is by no means even close to all the chalk statues made. We have several that we have not gotten photographed yet and I am aware of numerous others that we do not have.

As I said earlier, there are numerous chalk pieces that are not shown or discussed in this short article. Probably the most copied of the chalk statues is the one I call "Southern Bell". We have them in everything from chalk banks, white ceramic ware, to the later "fair" pieces. Very new copies of this piece are now appearing. One interesting thing is that there was a companion piece of a man and Borzoi. These are not common and are unusual.

Chalk has been a medium that has enjoyed different periods of popularity and despite its fragile nature much of it has survived to the present. It again is becoming quite collectable causing the prices to rise and I am sure that it will continue to be popular among Borzoi Collectors.

Until next time.

A special thank you to Frank Briola for his help with this article.

This article was re-written from an earlier article that appeared in the BCNC Newsletter.

FIGURE 1 is of a large American piece. It has a copyright mark and was made in Detroit Michigan. A local dealer found this at a sale in Pittsburgh. We call this piece Shirley due to the resemblance to a friend of ours. This piece appears with a woman and single dog as well as having the dress of the woman in several different colors.

FIGURE 2 is also an American piece. This is very similar to the Sultana piece, however it is larger and has only one dog. When I got this piece it had been broken. I was able to repair it, but I changed the color as it was an ugly green. The Sultana piece I referred to dates from the 1930's and as stated before has been highly copied. One can be seen as a prop in the original movie "Flamingo Row".

FIGURE 3 is probably an American "fair" piece. The color is blotchy and looks sprayed. The word Sultan is impressed into the front of the base.

FIGURE 4 is a fairly common American piece. It has just a plain white finish and has also been repaired. It still has the original price tag on the bottom and it sold for $1.50. It is a fairly old piece.

FIGURE 5 is a signed Santini and copyrighted under General Art Company. I think that it is an American piece but is not marked as such. It can be found in numerous colors.

FIGURE 6 is a new piece made by Carol Harvey from an old mold. It is decorated with hand rubbed chalk colors. The older piece has a heavier "enamel" type finish and was more detailed.

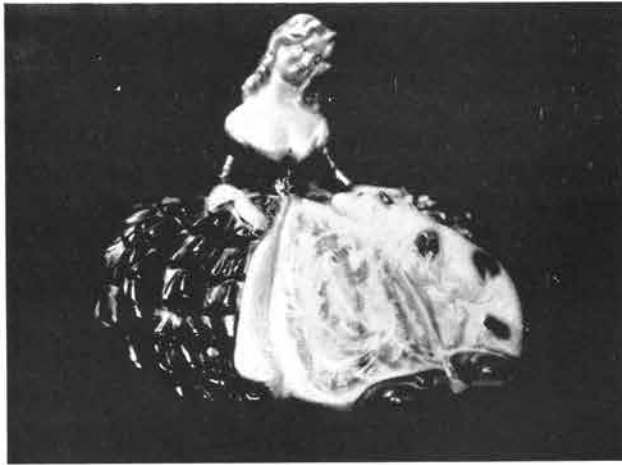

FIGURE 7 is a silhouette lamp. This also comes in numerous colors but some do not have the lace work painted on the woman's skirt. It does not have any copyright marks or company names on it. I would guess that it is American from the 1950's

FIGURE 8 is probably an old homemade piece. The painting of the features on the woman and the dog and the type of paint are not what you would find on a commercial piece. There are no copyright markers but the letter M appears on the back of the piece.

FIGURE 10 comes in several colors also. The dress in this figure is done in pearlized paint as well as the flowers. It is probably American made but has no marks.

FIGURE 11 shows one of the copper metal over chalks. This is a very large piece and at a quick glance it appears to be a bronze. It is signed J.W. Lindner and is dated 1935 with a copyright mark. I do not know if it is American or not.

FIGURE 14 I am trying to show the large circular wall plaque in this photo. It is dated 1938 and copyrighted Anuti-Made in USA. I have seen other designs that were possibly produced by this company. I suspect that this was half of a set.

The True Cost Of A National Specialty

by Kimberley A Horn Janek

Since taking over the role of National Specialty Chair/Show Secretary, I am often asked about the costs associated with the National Specialty. Although each venue presents its own unique challenges, the bottom line is that we rely on our membership for their support and donations to enable us to bring you the specialties you have enjoyed in the past and expect in the future. I hope you will take a few moments to review the 2023 National Reconciliation (opposite page).

The Details:

The Founders Inn and Spa, our lovely 2023 venue in Virginia Beach, VA, required us to have grooming outdoors. Because of our April dates, and the uncertainty with the weather, we needed to rent a tent for grooming. Additionally, to ensure we had electricity for the blow dryers in use, we had to rent an electrical bank for the week (total cost for both was approximately $10,000). The facility also required us to cover the ballroom floor and any areas where dogs would be present with plastic at the cost of $8,000. The only concession they allowed was the actual ring which required some negotiation and an additional cleaning charge of $500 plus tax and service charge ($640).

Hospitality is an important part of our National. We want everyone to feel welcome and enjoy the experience of the National celebration of our beloved breed. This year was no exception. Although we had several donations specifically earmarked for hospitality, you can see that hospitality costs take a substantial chunk out of the profits. It is wonderful to have the opening reception and I think many enjoy the Friday night social event. However, the continued escalation of costs may mean it may have to be scaled down or eliminated completely.

When negotiating with hotels, we contract for the number of hotel room nights we will need. Because we are working two years in advance, it is merely a guesstimate of what we may be able to fill. For that reason, we always encourage our membership and exhibitors to stay at the host hotel. Not only is it convenient, but the paid room nights also affect our potential costs (or credits) towards the cost of the ballroom, clinic rooms and seminar rooms. Fortunately, although we had a high room count (using the last numbers from Gettysburg, 2019) we were able to make our numbers. The hotel comped the ballroom and gave us a credit of almost $1,800. As a club, we use the credits to help offset the costs of our judges' rooms.

The POD continues to be a huge expense. For those of you that are not familiar with the POD, it is our portable storage unit that contains our perpetual trophies, ring gating, obedience and rally equipment, excess specialty sales items, bathtubs, hot water heaters and grounds items. The cost varies from year to year, depending on the distance required for POD transportation. There has been much discussion regarding the need for the POD but as witnessed in 2023, without the timely arrival of the POD, we had a mad scramble to locate bathtubs, hoses, pooper scoopers, poop bags, ring gating and obedience and rally equipment in time for the start of our event (all at an additional cost).

Where You Can Help:

When at all possible, stay at the host hotel. We work hard to negotiate reasonable rates that allow multiple dogs per room with minimal dog fees.

We can always use donations earmarked for the General Specialty Expenses which include Grounds, Hospitality and Trophies (please see the Trophy tab on the BCOA Specialty portion of the website for availability). You can also donate to our Juniors or Health Fund. We accept donations anytime or you may include them with your yearly dues.

If your Regional club would like to sponsor a specific event, or several clubs within a region would like to sponsor an event, or even you, as an individual, would like to sponsor an event, please do not hesitate to reach out to Barbara Danieli (Corresponding Secretary responsible for regional specialty approval and processing). We welcome your ideas, whether it be sponsoring morning coffee, the opening reception or the Friday night social activity.

Any donation, large or small, would be greatly appreciated and will be acknowledged in the 2024 National Specialty catalog. I have always said that this should be a National event, with volunteers throughout the USA pitching in. Regional volunteers will be increasingly important as we transition to utilizing three or four locations nationwide.

In Conclusion:

Speaking of the 2024 National Specialty ... Our committee is working tirelessly to provide us with everything we need for another fantastic event. Although we were recently notified that the original Olympia, WA, location will not be available, Kristina Terra, 2024 Facility Coordinator, and her committee are working to find a suitable location within Region 5. Barbara Danieli (Assistant Show Chair and Chief Ring Steward) and I will be working with several committees to finalize the Premium List. Once we confirm dates, judges, menus, health clinic offerings (with special BCOA member pricing) and reserved grooming details, we will notify you of availability. We look forward to seeing you all in Washington State in 2024! § you don't know how the dogs will get along, you should either politely decline their request or plan to spend some time acclimating the dogs to each other, supervising their interactions, monitoring for signs of a problem, and taking action to avoid injuries to dogs or people.

- Trash also should be cleared away where our incredibly tall dogs can't reach it – especially sparkly ribbon and other packaging or decorative items that could be tempting for your dog to play with or consume.

- Plan in advance. Make sure you know how to get to your 24/7 emergency veterinary clinic before there's an emergency. Plan your travel route so you're not trying to find your way when stressed. Always keep these numbers posted in an easy-to-find location in case of emergencies:

- Your veterinarian's clinic phone number
- 24/7 emergency veterinary clinic (if different)
- ASPCA Poison Control Hotline: 888-426-4435
- Pet Poison Helpline: 855-764-7661

BCOA 2023 Obedience Rankings

for BCOA member-owned Borzoi, January 1 to September 30, 2023

Corrections to Dean Eelman, dkeelman@att.net

To be included in the report, the first person listed as the dog's owner by the AKC must be a BCOA member. To be ranked in the Top 5 dog list at the end of the year, a dog must have at least 3 Qualifying Scores from any Obedience class. Scores for each class will be multiplied by a factor based on level of class difficulty and all Qualifying Scores will be averaged for that dog. The factors are as follows: Beginner Novice – 0.8; Preferred Novice – 0.9; Novice – 1.0; Graduate Novice – 1.1; Preferred Open – 1.2; Open – 1.3; Versatility – 1.3; Graduate Open – 1.35; Preferred Utility – 1.4; and Utility – 1.5. Only 1 score is needed to be ranked #1 in any particular class at year's end. Exceptions to these rules are to be voted on individually by the BCOA Board of Governors and reflected in the Board Minutes.

The Summer and Fall Aristocrat report will consist of a list for each of the all Obedience classes with qualifying entries with the dogs' name in alphabetical order and their real average score. BCOA 2023 Rally Rankings

for BCOA member-owned Borzoi, January 1 to September 30, 2023

Corrections to Dean Eelman, dkeelman@att.net

To be included in the report, the first person listed as the dog's owner by the AKC must be a BCOA member. To be ranked in the Top 5 list at the end of the year, a dog must have at least 3 Qualifying Scores from any Rally class. Scores for each class will be multiplied by a factor based on level of class difficulty and all Qualifying Scores will be averaged for that dog. The factors are: 1 for Novice, 1.1 for Intermediate, 1.2 for Advanced, 1.3 for Excellent and 1.4 for Master. Only 1 score is needed to be ranked #1 in any particular class at year's end. Exceptions to these rules are to be voted on individually by the BCOA Board of Governors and reflected in the Board Minutes.

The Summer and Fall Aristocrat report will consist of a list for each of the five Rally classes with the dogs in alphabetical order and their real average score. In the Winter and following year's Spring edition, each Rally class will list the dogs in weighted average score order. In addition, the Winter and following year's Spring Aristocrat editions will list the top 5 dogs in weighted order for those dogs having 3 Qualifying Scores in any class or classes.
