President's Message

by Lydia W. Pruett

BCOA commemorated its Centennial in 2004 and at times, it feels like many of our members have been from the beginning! The dog fancy in general seems to be aging. I notice on the AKC Parent Club list that most clubs seem to be dealing with the same issues. How do we get younger people involved in showing dogs and nurture them so that there are passionate and capable people who will eventually take our places at the helm? How do we encourage members to get involved? It is often the same group of people who assume the majority of the work. I hear comments that the Board is exclusive and that you have to be rich to participate. Being on the Board is a labor of love. We are there because of our love for the breed and because we want to ensure that the efforts of the founding members are maintained and improved upon so that in 2104, we still have a viable club to represent and protect our breed.

With permission from the President of the Irish Setter Club of America, I am including an excerpt from a message to the membership from their President as I felt that it captured what I am trying to say.

“This is a volunteer Board and each member pays his/her own expenses, including room, board, and travel ...Few Board members are independently wealthy; most sacrifice time, effort and personal resources to serve. Board meetings usually last ...hours. Agendas and committee reports are mailed in advance. This is a working board and members are expected to study beforehand and come prepared. Our club has been blessed over the years to have had dedicated Officers and Board members who choose to serve a club that has proven to be a model for other national breed clubs... The lifeblood of our club rests with those members who are willing to step forward and represent our club and serve our breed, and I encourage your doing so.”

Per the By-Laws of the BCOA Constitution, in order to serve on the Board a member must have participated in the last five years as a volunteer for a Club committee or special project.

To paraphrase a well known quote, ask not what BCOA can do for you, ask what you can do for BCOA. §

Notes on the new online version of The Aristocrat

The Aristocrat will be published online on a quarterly basis. It will be posted on the BCOA website as a PDF so that you can print it if you like.

We will not be doing ads as part of the Aristocrat as we have the BCOA online ad feature already. The issues will include all the content that was previously included in the Aristocrat section of the Borzoi Connection (new title holders, statistics, articles from committee chairs and of course, annual awards and specialty results).

If you want to include BCOA TSE results and photos, contact Helen W. Lee at savladai@borzoi.net for information on how to submit the best quality photos.

The quarterly deadlines are: Feb. 15, May 15, Aug.15 and Nov. 15. There will be a separate specialty issue each year (so that you do not have to wait until August for the results and photos). If you are interested in submitting an article, please contact Lydia Pruett to discuss.

BCOA HEALTH COMMITTEE UPDATES

Respectfully submitted by BCOA Health Chairman Ginger Jones

Borzoi Connection Subscribers' Contributions To BCOA Health

As sad as we all were to see the Borzoi Connection magazine come to an end, Shen Smith managed to take a disappointment for all and turn it into a "silver lining." She extended the invitation to all subscribers of the magazine who still had unfulfilled issues in their subscriptions to donate those funds left in their subscription balance to either the BCOA rescue or BCOA health committees in lieu of receiving a refund. I can tell you first hand that the response to this was an overwhelming "yes" to sending most of these funds to the BCOA health fund. So I would love to take this opportunity to thank all those people who contributed their balances to BCOA Health and to Shen for her generous initiative. It is so very much appreciated!!

Your combined contributions totaled just over $1400.00!!! These contributions will be used towards the seminar and clinics provided at the Nationals in Washington this coming May. Thanks so much all of you for your generosity and interest in supporting Borzoi Health!

Any names omitted in error will be published in the next issue of the Aristocrat.

General Membership Meeting – May 2011

In spite of our current depressed economical situation, it's extremely uplifting to see how many members included contributions to Borzoi Health on their one-stop-shopping form for the Nationals in Kansas. Participation in our eye and heart clinics was very good in spite of the multitude of things that exhibitors needed to juggle on clinic day. Our veterinary specialists along with a group of students were all extremely impressed with the outstanding behavior and temperaments of the dogs being examined. With the help of KC Artley, Leo Abordo, Dee Jones and several other members, we managed to keep the clinic wait time down to a minimum and provide assistance to all with the cumbersome CERF forms – most already had their OFA heart forms completely filled in when they came to the clinic – BRAVO!

The turn out for the Health Seminar on Degenerative Myelopathy was excellent, as was our guest speaker, Liz Hanson. Very deftly, Liz walked the audience through the basic background info on genetics and proceeded on to the specifics of the inheritance of the disease and the testing protocol. Her message to proceed with caution regarding the complete removal of at risk or carriers from the gene pool needs careful consideration. She reminded breeders that just as they would not single out only one phenotypical purpose for their breeding plans, so goes the considerations for health genes. All things need to be weighed carefully and a plan over time created to improve the end results.

At the Annual Awards banquet, it gave me great pleasure to be able to present our CHIC award in the amount of $200 for the very first time. This award was established in memory of Dr. Asa Mays, honoring his life long dedication to canine health and his love for the borzoi breed and it was such a pleasure to have Karen Mays there to congratulate the winners and hand out the award. This award went to Phyllis Potter and Patricia Wiseman for their Best in Futurity Puppy, ISLEHAVEN CAMANO, sired by CH Zabava Mercury and out of CH Coburn Seabreeze at Islehaven meeting the requirements of both sire and dam having obtained a CHIC number. Congratulations Phyllis, Pat & Camano on your success now and in the future!

Over the course of this past year, many members contacted me regarding the CHIC required and optional testing requirements with questions and suggestions. Since the CHIC award is an annual event, I did not think it appropriate to change criteria for the award in mid year. As of the Annual Awards banquet and the closing of the Nationals event of 2011, the optional DM test listed in our CHIC database was changed to a "required" test. Over this past year and with the introduction of the DM marker test for borzoi, it became more noticeable that we had a higher than anticipated number of borzoi indicated as carriers and at risk of the disease. I realize that this additional test is more costly than the other required tests of heart, eye CERF and thyroid, and I am sen-

Report from the Member Education Committee:

by Prudence G. Hlatky

BCOA Member Education National Specialty Educational Seminars:

An exciting series of educational programs is being developed for the next five years. The seminars build on each other making for a thought-provoking journey in your understanding and perception of Borzoi. All presenters will be notable experts in their fields.

2012, From Russia with Love, A Historic and Contemporary Review of Russian Borzoi. A panel of presenters, who have to have either lived in Russia, travelled to Russia for hunts and/or judged large Borzoi entries in Russia. Most importantly, each is a student of Borzoi in Russia, both historic and present day.

2013, Borzoi Movement: "The Good, The Bad, The Ugly" – comparison based on Rachel Page Elliott's DVD "Dogsteps" and pictures of Borzoi movement from BCOA Nationals and regional specialty shows and top winning Borzoi.

2014, Changing a Breed by Stealth, The Evolution of Borzoi in America using photos / videos of BCOA and regional specialty winners, BOB and class animals, as well as top 5 Borzoi to show how type evolves over the decades.

2015, BCOA Judges Education, Presentation of The Borzoi

2016, You Be the Judge, 'Putting It All Together!', Member judging, selection and placement of a class of Borzoi.

Come join us: we know you will have fun.

Stay tuned for more information and developments. §

sitive to the members who have already tested enough dogs in their blood line to proof them. I would like to be able to re-evaluate the statistics at the end of this term and then be able to make a more informed decision as to whether we can return this to an "optional" test, based on these results, or if we need to pursue it for a long period of time as a "required" test. Unfortunately, this is not a test that I can offer at the National events as the procedure for the test prohibits this type of setting. In addition, at this time the OFA does not offer any "group rate" discounts for the registration of the results of this test. I will continue to work with them to see if we can develop a method to offer this testing at our Nationals clinics at some point in the future. I thank all of you who have conducted this test on any of your dogs for helping us establish a base line for this disease in our breed. Results and statistics can be downloaded from the OFA website search engine.

AKC/CHF National Parent Club Canine Health Conference

This conference is held every two years in St. Louis, home of AKC/CHF and Purina, the event sponsor. It's purpose is to provide information back to the parent club liaison on research grants that many of these clubs have supported financially, to help encourage direct communication amongst the research community and the dog fancy and to share ideas across parent clubs to assist in membership education, fund-raising for research, and the sharing of common goals. This year's 3 day conference presentations were absolutely outstanding. Some of the presentations were far more technical than what's been typical in the past, so I had to forget the whole 3rd grade in order to make brain memory room for all this new stuff. So, if the next time you see me, I can't remember your name, you'll know why. Just smile and say "top of the genome to you"! The conference consisted of presentations on Cancer diagnostics and treatment, Degenerative Myelopathy, the relationship between the dog and the human in more ways than one, molecular genetics of cancer, developing pharmaceuticals, nutrition and stress, the new AKC Breeder of Merit program, Cardiomyopathy and Subaortic Stenosis and lastly, the status of test results over time for the search and rescue dogs of the 9/11 tragedy. There were also break out group sessions to focus on a variety of info sharing topics across all parent clubs. These break out sessions were led by a combination of people from CHF – to answer fund-raising, grant process and other related questions, OFA – to answer questions about any of their programs, AKC – to coordinate in put for the Breeder of Merit program, Purina – to provide information regarding their Parent Club Matching program and new products and several of the guest speakers held sessions on working with the parent clubs for future cancer research projects, understanding how to interpret and use results of genetic tests and last but not least, a panel group to discuss the future and opportunities for the search and rescue dogs. My plans are to take each of these presentations and provide a more detailed synopsis and post them to the Borzoi News list and to the BCOA Health website for your reference. Some fascinating breakthroughs are involved in several of these topics and I want to make sure I provide as much details as I can about each. §

Unique Zoitiques

By Cindy Michalak

Some of you may be familiar with this column title, which was originally a regular column in the Borzoi Connection magazine. Since the Aristocrat was also part of the BC, we thought maybe there would be enough interest to warrant continuing the Unique Zoitiques column. Therefore, I will try my best to not repeat anything already discussed in the BC and continue on from there. While I'm not sure why I selected this particular topic, I wanted to share with you some of the less common tins with painted of scenes depicting Borzoi.

This first tin is hard to understand why Borzoi would be shown as it looks like a scene from Christopher Columbus greeting the queen after sailing around the world. However, we surely know that Borzoi weren't around in 1492!

The colors are fading from age and wear from when I first purchased it. I have kept this wrapped in cellophane and hidden from extreme light since buying it to avoid any further deterioration. It is a large tin measuring 3½" tall x 10" across. It is embossed on the underneath "Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company; Bakers of Sunshine Biscuits; Net Weight 3 lbs. Address: New York, N.Y. Made in U.S.A. Judging from the 2 letter state, I would guess this was made in the late 1970s and valued around $75.

Should this tin be titled "Belles of the ball"? Lovely gowns adorn these women standing in the courtyard. Two of the flirtatious women have the eye of two gents while the luckier lady stands alone with her Wolfhound awaiting her approaching carriage. This appears to be in the Colonial era judging from the clothes everyone is wearing. There are no markings to indicate what this tin was used for, but my best guess would be a biscuit (cookie) tin. It measures 6.5" x 10" with a curved top. The graphics are still clear, but there are expected scratches from use. I would put a value on this of about $50.

Perhaps this lady was at the same gala event as the prior tin shows since she appears to be dressed in the same type of gown. However, she shows a little more class by having two of her treasured Borzoi by her side. In typical manner, her one Borzoi has taken interest in what she is holding in her hands. Perhaps the dog thought it was a treat or even a little dog she has tucked away in her arms. I know when we go to the flea markets around here in TN with our dogs that my dogs' ears perk up watching this one particular Chihuahua that insistently barks at them as the lady carries it in her arms. I like that they show the lady and dogs as the main point in the picture rather than having a lot of the background in it. This tin measures 5½" x 7" x 2¼". It is marked on the side in graphics "RSM & Coil, Ltd., Glasgow Edinburgh & Branches and I assume that is an English company. Very uncommon, with colorful artwork, I would estimate this could fetch $65.

This tin is appropriately titled "Diana" and measures 9¼" x 8¼". The paper label on the underside reads: The design on this container was commissioned for the exclusive use of Elkes Biscuits Limited, Uttoxeter. This tin contains a selection from the assortment illustrated." On the edge of the circular label it reads :Un Assortiment Des Meilleurs Biscuits D'angleterre. Fabrique Par La Maison Elkes De Reputacion Mondiale" and was made in England. For something different, I suppose this is a nicely designed tin, but the two colors of blue and white aren't quite as appealing to me as scenes done in natural colors. Even though it is one of the larger tins, I value it at around $35.

Now here are some tall Borzoi! If you'll notice, the dogs are barely up off the ground yet their legs are quite long making it seem like they could actually stand taller than normal. Of course from the appearance of the Belle, it seems she too has long legs and a rather short torso. To me this is a bland looking graphic with the night-sky and unreal cartoonish looking trees that surround the yard. I find it amusing that the tail on the one dog turns under instead of either straight out or held higher as would seem normal with the position shown. That leads me to another thought; how come the dogs appear to be running while the lady stands quietly looking at the artist for the picture? This circular tin is 3½" x 9" and there are no markings to indicate where it was made or for what use. Are we to

This circular tin is 3½" x 9" and there are no markings to indicate where it was made or for what use. Are we to assume it was a biscuit tin or did it possibly house chocolate candies? There are several scratches on this particular tin, but due to its rarity, I still value it at around $40.

Here is an odd almost octagon shaped tin. I haven't decided what this scene is depicting. It measures 8½" x 7" and while there are a few scratches here and there, the picture is still vibrant and colorful. The only mark is printed inside the lid that says "1845 Meurisse" and I haven't figured out if that is the date this scene is from or if it is just a random number used for inventory. Hard to find, this tin, in its current condition, is valued around $65.

As in the past with both the Borzoi Connection and Borzoi International magazines, I saved my favorite or best for last. Small in size but high in value, this pretty tin shows two Borzoi that have the look of the old-time Borzoi of Russia. It is obviously a candy tin because it is marked on the side: "Pascall's Pure Confectionary." The underside has a painted label which resembles a paper label that shows a coat of arms that says "Purity, Trade Mark Sweetness, Pascall's London." It measures a small 3½" x 5½". I had seen this same tin on auction over a year ago and apparently it is a rare find because it sold for well over $100. Of course I didn't pay that much for mine, but after seeing that price, I put it higher on the list of my favorites.

That concludes the first online version of Unique Zoitiques with hopefully many more to. I want to thank BCOA for asking me to pickup where we left off in writing for the Aristocrat and hope that you enjoy reading about Borzoi collectibles. If you would like to share something with the members, please let me know. Or if you have a question on anything from your own collection, perhaps I can help you out with information on that as well. Just drop me a line at: borzoi@mc.net. See you next quarter!
